Philatelic Series Vol. II. No. 4. | BERLIN, NOVEMBER, 1900. | Old Series Number 18.

NEBRASKA PHILATELIC ASSOCIATION.

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED.

We publish below the new officers of the largest state philatelic society in the world—the Nebraska Philatelic Society. They were elected at the annual convention at Lincoln

President—W N Estes, Omaha.
Vice President—F A Stanbro, Lincoln
Supt. of Sales—R Betzner, David City.
Auction Manager—J Negreen, Omaha.
Counterfeit Director—A Whitmer, Tecumsen.
Librarian—J Philips, Lincoln.
Attorney—H Whipple Omaha.
Trustees—Stanbro, Philips and Parker, Lincoln.
Official Organ—Philatelic West.

This society has a membership of some four hundred.

The publishers of PHILATELIC FUN request us to announce that the paper is being delayed until arrangements are made for mailing the paper as second class matter. The first number will be dated Jan 1st. 1901.

DOMINION PHILATELIC ASSOCIATION NOTES.

A supplement to the D P A hand book will be issued in January.

The sales department of the Association is the same as was formerly known as the Exchange Department. The new name is the most appropriate.

The death occurred on October 14th of Edward B Carter, of Dayton, Ohio. He was one of the early members of the Dominion Philatelic Association.

The paid-up membership of the D P A is now 396.

The Auction Department has not been in operation for some weeks on account of the illness of Mr R S Mason, the efficient manager of this important branch of the association.

I would suggest that resident vice-presidents be appointed in the different provinces and states This would aid materially in the work of securing new members.

A fine large half-tone and write-up of our popular president, Capt Wurtele, appeared in the ADHESIVE for November.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

Mr. W. Sellschopp, of San Francisco has gone to Germany for an extended stay. During his absence Mr. W. Loy will manage Fi'atelic Facts and Fallacies and Mr August Link recently returned from Germany, will have charge of the extensive stamp business of W. Sellschopp & Co. The last number of F F. & F. contained a very interesting article on the career of the firm since its establishment by Mr. Sellschopp in 1891.

The MONTREAL PHILATELIST is at present venting its spleen on the ADVOCATE. What paper will be the next victim? By the way if a vote were taken probably 999998 out of the 999999 subscribers of the M. P. would vote for the discontinuance of the paper's mud-slinging department.

Starnaman Bros. are doing some tall hustling and we may expect a "better issue than has been" in their Twentieth Century Number.

The COLLECTOR has given up its single handed struggle for exis'ance which it has been carrying on for some months and is now incorporated with the New York Philatelist.

We congratulate the NEW YORK PHILATELIST on having such a successfully conducted department called "The Fraud Reporter." It is invaluable to dealers. But care should be taken that substantial proof of guilt is had before any person is slated as a fraud. It is posible for a person to be unjustly accused and the wrong done an honest person by publishing him as a fraud is a very serious one and mere corrections and apologies do not by a great deal counterbalance the wrong done.

A R. Magill, of Montreal will begin the publication of a new paper in January. It will be known as the PHILATELIC RECORD.

ENERGY is making a most favorable impression with dealers and as a result numerous contracts for three, six and twelve months are being signed. Among the more recent contracts signed were those of the Camden Stamp Co., Geo. H. Anders, Atlas Stamp & Pub. Co, Coyne Stamp Co, and Thos. E. Morgan. These are all reliable and worthy of your patronage.

The Philatelic Club of Toronto has reorganized for the season under the following officers:

President—G E Davenport.
Vice Pres.—F A Brereton.
Sec'y.—C Ussher.
Treas.—A Rene.
Librarian—E Britton.
Auction M'g'r.—H Landymore.
Trustees—E Marks, Waste and Crane.

The Secretary's address is 137 Baldwin St. Toronto. Meetings are held every Tuesday evening in Broadway Hall.

The Twin City Philatelic Association, of Berlin and Waterloo, will hold its annual re-election of officers in the near future. The club has been the means of bringing collectors of these two cities into pleasant social relationship and reports of its progress are given from time to time in the columns of the daily papers.

Berlin, Ontario, has been dubbed the philatelic Augusta, Maine, of Canada. It certainly has done its share in sending forth unto the world the tidings of Philatelia. No fewer than 113 numbers of the different stamp papers published in Berlin have been sent out The Advocate leads with fifty numbers. Twenty-five numbers are credited to the paper which started as the Boys' Own Philatelist, became the Canadian Philatelic Weekly and ended as the Canadian Philatelic Review. Then follow Enery with eighteen numbers; Philatelic Spectator, twelve; Pet Philatelist, four and the Canadian Collector, three numbers. Now we herald another publication to be known as PhilatelicFun.
